Alumni Talk Series: Whats and Hows of Research

Program Details

Date	3 rd February 2024
Participants	35 Participants (29 Students and 6 staff members)
Resource person	Mr. Suman N
Venue	Institute Auditorium, DRSRCISH

Objective: The talk aimed at enhancing the comprehensive understanding of research methodologies and emerging technologies shaping contemporary research practices.

Brief Overview: Mr. Suman N, Associate Professor and Vice Principal, Samvaad Institute of Speech and Hearing, Bangalore who is also an Alumni of DR.S.R.C. ISH, enlightened the students and staff on the topic "Whats and Hows of Research". This program was organized by the Alumni Association committee in collaboration with IQAC.

His talk aimed to delve into the intricacies of research exploring effective strategies for data collection and analysis, and examining the significance of critical thinking in research pursuit. Through engaging discussions, he explained how to find reliable information for a research topic, how to analyse the data and the process of publishing research in academic journals. He also shared his personal experiences to the audience bridging the gap between academics and real-world challenges. He highlighted the ethical considerations for research involving the importance of ensuring the research integrity, confidentiality, and consent.

An interactive session with the staff was also conducted where Mr. Suman clarified the doubts regarding the publications and the process involved in publications.

Feedback: A Google form was circulated to all the attendees to obtain feedback on the talk. This talk was well appreciated by all the attendees and they appreciated the content and quality of the talk. Attendees also requested talks on similar topics to enhance their clinical knowledge.

Report on-‘Vestibular Rehabilitation’ an Alumni Talk Series

Program Details
Date	22 nd March 2024
Participants	(9) II M.Sc. Audiology students, (4) I M.Sc. Audiology students & (5) In house faculty
Resource person	Mr. Balavignesh S, Clinical Audiologist and Business Development Manager at Cyclops Medtech and Dizzy Easy Vestibular Clinic, Bangalore Alumni batch 2019 – 2021
Venue	(Offline) Seminar Hall (10:00 am to 12:00 pm), DR. SRCISH

Objective: This program was aimed at enhancing the knowledge on “Vestibular Rehabilitation” for the staff and M.Sc. students.

Overview: Alumni of Dr. S R Chandrasekhar Institute of Speech and Hearing and Department of Hearing Studies in association with IQA organized an Alumni talk series on 22nd March 2024. The event aimed to assist students and faculty in gaining firm knowledge and experience on Vestibular Rehabilitation and Maneuvers. Mr. Balavignesh delivered a two-hour presentation on the causes of vestibular problems; how to take a detailed case history; essential qualities of a clinician like rapport building, motivation, discipline, and consistency in treating patients; and various vestibular rehabilitation maneuvers. He also gave a demonstration of how to maneuver patients. He answered questions patiently and clearly, keeping the crowd engaged and inclusive throughout.

Talk : Using Everyday Items In Developing Speech And Language Skills In Children

Program Details
Date	12 th April 2024
Participants	Hearing impaired children-42, Parents of hearing impaired children-42, Staffs-6, Students-10 Total= 100
Organized by	Department of Hearing Studies (AVT Unit)
Talk/ Event	Using Everyday Items In Developing Speech & Language Skills In Children
Venue	Auditorium

Objective:

To use everyday items at home to enhance speech and language development with hearing impaired children

Brief Overview: Department of Hearing Studies (AVT Unit) in association with IQAC, conducted a talk on “Using everyday items in developing speech and language skills in children” on 12th April 2024 by Ms. Manasa R B, an Alumnus of Dr. SRCISH and gold medalist in M.Sc (SLP). She is known for her interactive and creative approach in taking therapy, making the experience both fun and enlightening for the children and parents too. Her focus for the day was on using everyday items in developing speech and language skills in children. The session was carried out with an PPT presentation as well as live demonstration of daily using materials. Parents were given opportunities to interact and share.

Feedback:

A feedback form was developed and circulated to all the attendees. The talk was identified to be effective and atmost relevance to the audience. Many parents requested for more sessions on these topic as well.
